

SOUTH HUNTINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Let Us Play Matchmaker

Wondering what to read next? Our librarians can choose materials for you based on your interests through our Book Match personal librarian service!

Simply answer a few questions on an online survey, or call Adult or Youth Services, and a librarian will get back to you via email or phone with suggested titles. If you are interested, we will reserve them for you at the Circulation Desk.

This service is available for all ages, and a survey is available in Spanish.

To access, click on the Book Match link at www.shpl.info> Books, Movies and More.

For more information, call Adult Services or Youth Services at 631.549.4411.

Election Day is Tuesday, Nov. 3

The library will be closed except for voting.

The Library is a polling place for several election districts, and since it is a presidential election year, large crowds are to be expected. In the interest of the safety of patrons, voters and staff, the library will be open only for those who are assigned to it as a polling place. A mask is required.

Community Shredding Day

Sun., Nov. 8, 1:30-4:30 p.m., library parking lot

Clean out those file cabinets! A truck from A Shred Away will be in the library parking lot to accept 3 bags or boxes per person of unwanted documents and paperwork. Please, no newspapers, magazines, books or plastic. If you have old x-rays, please separate and they will be shredded separately.

Run Out of Paper? Printer Ink Go Dry?

Print school assignments at the library

Remote learning has created the need for worksheets and other materials to be printed. If your home printer is on the fritz, send jobs to the library, then drop by to retrieve them!

To submit print jobs using your personal device, access the PrinterOn wireless printing portal or download the free PrinterOn app. Enter your email address when prompted.

The job will be held at one of the library's print kiosks — there's one in Adult Services on the main level and one in Youth Services downstairs — until you enter your email address to claim them. Fees are 10 cents per page for black and white, 25 cents for color.

To get started, go to <https://shpl.info/printing>.

Staff Members Retiring

The end of 2020 is bittersweet as we say farewell to four longtime staff members who are retiring with a combined 111 years of service to the community. Among them are (above, from left) Elaine Jaguden, Sheila Gorelick and Kathy Penkal, who receive congratulations from Library Director Janet Scherer (right). Also retiring is Clare Clark (left). We thank them for their dedication to the library and the community and wish them well. Happy Retirement!

The Library will be closed on Tues., Nov. 3 (except for voting) and Thurs., Nov. 26
Happy Thanksgiving!

Free Help With FAFSA!

Notary Service Available

The library has notaries on staff. General hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Please call ahead to make an appointment; walk-ins are welcome but subject to the availability of a notary. This service is free of charge.

Persons using the service must personally appear, present a valid New York State driver's license or other government-issued photo ID and sign before the notary in black ink.

The service is not available for deeds and other real estate documents, I-9 forms, living wills, trusts, codicils, powers of attorney or depositions.

If the transaction requires a witness, the patron must bring a person who is known to them and who has a valid NYS driver's license or other government-issued photo ID.

To see the library's full Notary Services Policy, please go to our website at www.shpl.info>Services>A-Z Services.

Researching Your Family Tree?

Ancestry.com Library Edition has extended remote access through Dec. 31, 2020. Normally, the resource could only be used in the library, but since the pandemic, remote access has been available.

The library also offers several other resources for South Huntington Library cardholders who are researching their family tree. They include the Ellis Island database, Family Search, Fold3 (military records), HeritageQuest, historic newspapers (including New York Times Historical and New York State Newspapers) and a South Huntington yearbook collection, featuring Walt Whitman High School, St. Anthony's, Holy Family and South Huntington High School.

To access, go to our website at www.shpl.info>Research> Genealogy & Local History. You will need a South Huntington Library card.

Axis 360 Content Relocating

Those who use Axis 360 for e-book and audio-book content will soon find those titles on Hoopla. Axis 360 is being discontinued, but the Hoopla app is free and additional e-book and audiobook content is available with your South Huntington Library card. This includes music, video and comics. Digital content is also available through Overdrive and the free Libby app.

To access, go to our website at www.shpl.info>Books, Movies & More>Ebooks & Audiobooks.
