50 Years of Library Service

The South Huntington Public Library will mark its Golden Jubilee with a special event on Saturday, September 24, 2011, so save the date! Details are being finalized and it promises to be a great community celebration.

As part of the preparations, community residents are invited to share their thoughts and memories of the library. Written statements or spoken word recollections are welcome. Visit shpl.info for detailed information.

Contact P.J. Novak to set up an appointment to have your statement video recorded. Old photographs are also being sought.

Donor Recognition Campaign

The Friends of the South Huntington Library are also hard at work planning events to celebrate this special occasion. To mark the library's 50th Anniversary, the Friends will be re-introducing their most popular Donor Recognition Campaign by offering a limited amount of our garden bluestones for engraving. Individuals, families, community and school groups and local businesses can have their names engraved as supporters of the library, or they can purchase an engraving in honor or memory of a loved one. There are several different levels at which patrons can support the gardens, depending on the size of the area to be engraved. A detailed brochure is available at the library for this limited offering, or online at shpl.info. It would be a wonderful way to commemorate your support and love of the library for decades to come.
